DRAGA & AUREL

The bookcase Viceversa by Draga & Aurel redefines sculptural furniture by transforming practical function into an aesthetic and emotional experience. This magnificent combination of brass and glass becomes the centerpiece of every living room and studio, creating a perfect balance between opulence and functionality. The structure, made up of shelves and side parts with inner aluminium framework, is covered with plates in brushed polished brass, a valuable material that adds warmth and brightness to the essential design. The backs of the bookcase are embellished with bands in extra-clear wavy glass that create a play of reflections and transparencies, giving lightness and depth to the composition. Exuding sleek elegance, Viceversa is the brass bookcase that not only accommodates books and objects but encases them with sophisticated drama, turning them into the centrepieces of the room.
