SOFAS AND ARMCHAIRS | Indoor
STUDIOPEPE

Dharma is a collection of elegant and unusual furniture items whose designs – the product of a collaboration with Studiopepe – go beyond the concept of modern. Their unconventional and evocative appearance totally sets them apart from other Baxter solutions. The stools, armchairs, benches and loungers of the collection look like sculptures, polished yet informal, statuesque yet dynamic, with painted surfaces that conceal a core composed of natural materials. Surprisingly comfortable and enveloping thanks to weatherproof cushions and mattresses, these seats can be combined or used individually in both the living room and the garden.

Structure: glossy lacquered polimex structure.

Padding / Filling: loose seat cushion and roll in single density polyurethane foam (bench and lounge only).

Feet / Legs: adjustable feet.

Covering / Coating: removable cover with lower part in non-slip rubber fabric (bench and lounge only).

Available in soft leathers only.
