SOFAS AND ARMCHAIRS | Indoor
PAOLA NAVONE

Destructured and oversized, featuring a soft, rounded shape, Paola Navone's Damasco sectional sofa moves away from the traditional image of an upholstered leather sofa through simplified forms and a relaxed, extra-comfortable design. Formed of upholstered modules with extra-large volumes, the seat is large, comfortable and enveloping. Whether an ottoman, dormeuse or love seat, each sofa module features leather upholstery stitched with the typical raw cut, a distinctive detail of the designer's projects, which elevates its tactile and informal appearance.
