SOFAS AND ARMCHAIRS | Indoor
DRAGA & AUREL

The Barret armchair by the Draga&Aurel design studio completes the idea of comfort with an extra-large seat enclosed by a rigid shell that reinterprets the sophisticated shapes of 1970s furniture. Featuring an ergonomic and generous design, this swivel armchair is embellished with soft curled leather upholstery that makes the upholstery even softer to the touch. The low, deep and enveloping seat makes Barret a sophisticated refuge, a nest in which to sink for maximum relaxation.

Structure: polimex frame with differentiated density polyurethane foam padding with acrylic fibre cover.

Feet / Legs: matt black varnished metal swivel base.

Available in soft leathers only.
