

MANAO

CHAIRS | Open-air
PAOLA NAVONE

Light and sophisticated, the Open-Air Manao chair stands out for its Manila cane structure, a flexible, enduring and sustainable material, hand-woven with technical cord covered in Cloister or Lido leather. This combination gives the seat an essential appearance, able to adapt harmoniously to any open air environment. The seat cushion is covered with leather for outdoor use. The Cloister and Lido leather version is adorned with topstitching that highlights the detailed craftsmanship, whereas the outdoor fabric variant is marked by double stitching, adding a touch of sophisticated elegance. Manao Open-Air is designed to enrich gardens, terraces, and outdoor environments with a sober and refined style, offering a very charming seating experience.

Structure: structure made of Manila cane interlaced through the plaiting of a technical rope covered in Cloister and Lido leather.

Padding / Filling: support seat cushion in differentiated density polyurethane foam filling with acrylic fibre cover for outdoor.

Decoration: sharp edge stitching in Cloister and Lido leather version; double stitching in the outdoor fabric version.
