

PHOENIX

TABLES AND SMALL TABLES | Outdoor
PAOLA NAVONE

Essential and majestic, the Phoenix Outdoor coffee table stands out for its structure made entirely of terracotta, worked according to ancient Tuscan craft techniques handed down through the ages. The almost conical shape of the base supports the table top with balance, creating a sculptural presence that dialogues harmoniously with the external environment. The hand finishing gives the surface a homogenous and authentic look, enhancing the natural imperfections of the material and making each piece unique. Terracotta, durable and alive, blends perfectly with garden greenery and outdoor settings, evolving over time and telling the story of its material. Phoenix Outdoor is designed to enrich terraces, gardens and open-air spaces with an essential and timeless style, combining traditional craftsmanship and contemporary design in a perfect balance of aesthetics and functionality.
