PIETRO RUSSO

Float is an elegant glass and brass bar cabinet designed by Pietro Russo for Baxter, a masterpiece of engineering and design made entirely of glass. A precious piece that enhances social moments spent savouring your favourite drink. The light and minimalist forms of the cabinet are supported by legs and internal fittings in satin-finished brass and enclose extra-clear tempered glass doors with refined reflections and transparencies that seem to hover in space. Constant current LED lighting makes Float an extremely impressive storage element that can be admired from any angle by day or night, and in which you can display your most treasured glasses and bottles.

Structure: structure and openable side doors in extra-clear tempered glass.

Feet / Legs: base, hinges and internal bottle storage accessories in matt-varnished satin brass.

Lighting: "Quick-LED" module with constant current. 1.26 – 1.8W with micro heat sink made of co-injected aluminium.
